

- College classes should require attendance.
- Students should be able to use phones and laptops in class.
- Students should be able to grade their teachers.
- The school day should start later for middle school and high school.
- Children should be given a smartphone before the age of 12.
- Video games are bad for you.
- Parents should teach their children ASL.
- Cochlear implants are helpful.
- Hearing aids are helpful for Deaf individuals.
- Parents should be required to learn ASL to communicate with their children.
- Learning another language improves your grades.
- Interpreters shouldn't have to be licensed to interpret.
- All schools should be required to have interpreters for Deaf children.
- Students shouldn't have to take the SAT/ACT.
- Children should have daily chores.
- Year-round education is better for students.
- Children shouldn't be allowed to drink soda.
- Students should be required to volunteer to graduate.
- All students should be required to learn a different language in high school.
- Learning a different language isn't helpful.
- Everyone should be required to vote.
- Cats are better than dogs.
- Students should be required to read over the summer.
- Online classes are better than in-person classes.
- Freshman students should be required to live in the dorms.
- Homework should be banned.
- A senior capstone isn't necessary to graduate.